

From: Scheffer James
Sent: Wednesday, May 16, 2007 10:50 AM
To: MS-20
Cc: Spencer Jack
Subject: FW: Empress of the North accident weather
Morgan & Barry.

WX about 15 miles west of accident site.

-----Original Message-----

From: Salottolo Greg
Sent: Wednesday, May 16, 2007 10:09 AM
To: Misencik Paul
Cc: Curtis Brian; Scheffer James; Rowlett Sandy
Subject: RE: Empress of the North accident weather

Preliminary Weather Info ... Official Use Only

Surface Weather Observations Hoonah, AK (PAOH) May 14, 2007 .. About 12 nautical miles west of the accident site.

0056 ADT ... Overcast skies; visibility 10 miles; light rain; temperature 43 degrees F; dew point 39 degrees F; relative humidity 86%; winds 080 degrees at 10 mph.

0156 ADT ... Overcast skies; visibility 7 miles; temperature 43 degrees F; dew point 40 degrees F; relative humidity 89%; winds 070 degrees at 8 mph.

Coastal Waters Forecast issued by the National Weather Service Juneau, AK on May 13, 2007 at 1600 ADT ...

Icy Strait ..

Tonight ... east wind 20 knots; seas 4 feet; rain

Monday ... northeast wind 20 knots; seas 3 feet; rain

Monday Night ... southeast wind 20 knots; seas 4 feet

Attached Weather Radar Image from Juneau, AK for 0154 ADT showing weak weather radar echoes in the accident area (accident site 'Acc').

EMPRESS_ACG_095
4.GIF